LOVE TRILOGY

The Love Trilogy blurs the lines between fiction and documentary to genuinely create the reality of each character. The actors, mostly non-professional, were asked to live the lives of their fictional characters for the unusual long shooting period of over a year. The script trimmed to the bones of the main plot was constantly enriched by the actors personal experience.

LOGLINE

Rashi has been a police officer for 16 years, a guardian of others and the law, always in control. One day, he is accused of sexual assault and suspended from the force due to his conduct during a standard police-check on some privileged boys. While defending his innocence at work, he finds himself clashing at home with his step-daughter. Gradually, his wife becomes distant.
