SYNOPSIS

Agnes, a teacher from the German province Hesse, comes to Berlin to identify a dead girl. The police suspect she is Agnes' fifteen-year-old daughter Lydia, who has run away from home. But she is not. Agnes remains in Berlin nevertheless, driven by the hope of finding her daughter. Ines has been living in Berlin for years on the street or with people who offer her shelter. She claims to be a painter, but is actually a passionate social parasite. One night, the two women's paths cross. From that point on, Ines clings to Agnes' side. She infiltrates the older woman's life as though it were her own. Agnes yields to the young woman's forceful ways.
